STINGER® CH38 Cap Hammer Now Available at HomeDepot.com

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. – As of Thursday, January 31, 2013, National Nail Corp.'s STINGER Cap Systems' CH38 Cap Hammer is available for purchase at HomeDepot.com, the website of The Home Depot®, the world's largest home improvement specialty retailer.

"We are very excited for STINGER to be available at HomeDepot.com," said Scott Baker, President and CEO of National Nail Corp. "With online purchasing on the rise, it provides customers with another outlet to access STINGER and presents us the opportunity to reach a larger audience."

STINGER Cap Systems, manufactured and distributed by National Nail Corp., set the standard for securing roofing underlayment and housewrap. Each STINGER pneumatic and non-pneumatic tool automatically delivers the holding power of a cap and staple or nail for best practice installation as recommended by manufacturers like DuPont®, Typar®, Grace and Titanium™.

HomeDepot.com offers the STINGER CH38 Cap Hammer, the first hammertacker to deliver a cap and staple, and 2016 count STINGER 3/8" StaplePacs®. For more information, visit www.stingerworld.com or call 1-800-968-6245 ext. 2134.

National Nail Corp., headquartered in Grand Rapids, Mich., is an employee-owned manufacturer and distributor of high quality, innovative building products and service solutions for the residential and commercial construction industries.
